The airmen's dormitory was constructed in 1944. The construction was of a temporary design with a wood foundation, wood floor, and wood walls. The roof is of asphalt roll construction. The heating source was originally individual coal fired space heaters. It is a 2,020-square-foot-building of 20-foot-by-101-foot dimensions. The building has a covered, enclosed porch.

This building is identical in use, plan, and appearance as 2512, 2513, and 2514. The building has a capacity of 24. The original construction cost was $3,200. The building appears to be structurally sound.
